

Ninth Seminar on Relational Sociology

The relational outlook on a changing society

Milan, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
1st-2nd February 2018

Thursday 1st February – Theoretical aspects: What does the 'relational outlook' consist of in sociology?

2:30pm - 6:30pm – Via Nirone, 15 – Room N.110

Introducing the works: Giancarlo Rovati

Chair: Giovanna Rossi

- Pierpaolo Donati The sociological outlook: when, how and why is it relational?
Ivo Colozzi Interaction, transaction, relation. Ideas to further the comparison between Emirbayer and Donati
Elzbieta Halas Discovering the relational relevance of reciprocity
Donatella Bramanti – Giovanna Rossi Thinking for generations: the contribution of relational sociology
Fabio Ferrucci Which relational breakthrough in the field of disability studies? New perspectives on theory and policy
Pablo Garcia Ruiz The emergence of crowdsourcing as a relational work

Friday 2nd February – New 'research and relational practice' pathways

9am - 1pm

Workshop 1: Sociological research from a relational perspective (for PhD students and young researchers)

Largo Gemelli, 1 – Room G.153

Chair: Lucia Boccacin

- Maria Letizia Bosoni The challenge of familiarisation in the PAN Consortium: research with and for families into early childhood services
Sara Nanetti The crisis of European citizenship from a relational perspective
Alice Zanchettin Separated fathers: personal and social reflexivity

Matteo Moscatelli – Elisabetta Carrà

Analysing social capital from a relational perspective: a pilot survey of families with children and preadolescents in Novara

Simone D'Alessandro Relational sociology and the doctor-nurse-patient relationship

Federica Duca The city seen relationally: beyond defined urban categories and segregation

Lorenzo Bruni Relational dynamics of shame. Theory and case studies

Workshop 2: Aspects and practical applications of relational sociology

Largo Gemelli, 1 – Room G.052

Chair: Paolo Terenzi

Francesco Marcaletti – Rita Cavallotti

The operationalisation of functional intergenerational solidarity in the family unit. Findings from research carried out in Spain

Pier Paolo Bellini Relations, trust, fulfilment: postmodern short circuits

Daniela Bandelli Relations in the feminist discourse regarding surrogate motherhood. Towards which cultural model of procreation?

Tiziana Tarsia Relational practices in second-line reception systems: exit paths of the beneficiaries

Federica Bertocchi Bullying: a relational phenomenon

Maria Luisa Raineri 'We are foster carers too'. The biological children of foster families as young caregivers

Relational social work in social and family networks

2:00pm - 6:30pm – Via Nirone, 15 – Room N.110

Chair: Fabio Folgheraiter

Maria Luisa Raineri – Fabio Folgheraiter

Are self-help and mutual aid possible between people with different problems? A small corporate welfare experiment

Elena Cabiati Relational social work education and involvement of Experts by Experience: messages from qualitative research

Camilla Landi Family fostering as a relational practice. Quantitative research on the files of the Youth Court of Milan.

Giulia Avancini Receiving and giving care: two sides of the same coin. Participatory research on the onset of dementia.

Francesca Cirillo Community work in multi-ethnic metropolitan neighbourhoods. A study of the processes of social inclusion among immigrant women in the Pioltello area

Chiara Panciroli The approach of participatory research. Recommendations from the Relational method of Social Work

Francesca Corradini Making child protection decisions using a participatory approach. The Family Group Conference model

Paolo Terenzi The "Relational studies in sociology" network

Concluding the works: Pierpaolo Donati

Scientific Committee: Elisabetta Carrà, Paolo Terenzi

Scientific Secretary: Alice Zanchettin